

engineering IMPACT

Promote the Carolinas as a global engineering hub.

- > Your support will help promote the Carolinas as an engineering hub, win engineering jobs and bring engineering companies to the region.
- > Engineering Impact will focus on the engineering community and highlight the existing assets in education and workforce training, provide a directory of engineering firms, and list companies whose products are highly engineered.
- > Engineering Impact will be distributed in GSA Business, the Charleston Regional Business Journal and the Columbia Regional Business Report.
